Our Subject is intemperance a subject of great importance because all the time many souls are being lost for the bible says "no drunkard can enter the kingdom of heaven"

Some people who live in old hovels might have comfortable cottages if it were not for intemperance.

400-600 murders are committed by doers of intemperance yearly.

In most cities are saloons Some of the keepers never touch the liquor themselves but will be punished for causing temptation to others. When a man in winter has been working he is cold and wants something to warm him up and as he goes down the street he sees a sign "free lunch" or some thing else. He goes in and is asked to take a drink instead of coffee. he takes it, and then a cigar, after he has made several such visits, he is the victim of the terrible appetite of licquor we might call intemperance a sneak thief or a pick pocket who robs the ignorant of money strength & soul. many

Young men never intended to smoke or drink
but when temptation came could not withhold it. Some one has written an a. b. c. of drink which is as follows

- a. is the alcohol, death like <sup>its grip</sup> B. the beginner who takes <sup>a sip</sup> but
 C. the companion who urges <sup>him on</sup>
 D. for the demon of drink which is <sup>born</sup>
 E. the endeavor he makes to resist
 F. for the friends who loudly insist <sup>ward</sup>
 G. for the guilt which he after <sup>feels</sup> H. for the horrors that hang at his heels
 I. for his intention to avoid <sup>all</sup> not at J. for seeing that follows his fall <sup>a slave</sup> K. for his knowledge that he is
