Response Time

It is a personal time for children to work with the stories, retelling them, or using art materials to tell the story or express how they feel about it. Changing the art materials in your center can give the children new ideas and encourage them to respond in a new way. Below is a list of age appropriate materials that we have used that children enjoy.

Ages 4-5 or 6

construction paper
scissors
manipulate different shapes puzzles
blocks
glue sticks
tempera paints
watercolor paints
play dough
cotton balls
yarn
beads
wickie Sticks
pipe cleaners
crayons
washable markers
picture bible story books
magazine collage pictures
dress up clothes

Ages 6-8

paint, watercolor and tempera fabric
ribbon
pop cycle sticks
yarn
regular and fabric glue colorful tissue paper
beads and pipe cleaners
tin foil rubbings
modeling clay
simple bible stories
desert box and glass "stones" cross for use in talking to God black scratch paper (colors under) markers
magazines for making collages butcher block paper for long scenes legos: make sure you take out cars colorful fabric for dress up clothes
