Would your church, school, or organization benefit from a year of learning how to revitalize your worship? Come and learn about the Vital Worship Grants Program, which seeks to foster vital worship in congregations, parishes, and other worshiping communities in North America through projects on a variety of worship-related topics. Meet some former grant recipients, hear about their experiences, and learn how you might develop your own grant proposal.

1. Introductions

2. General description of the Vital Worship Grants Program: Kathy Smith

3. Panel questions:

- a. What was the main idea of your grant project and how was that purpose carried out in your setting?

- b. What did you learn as a leader and what did your worshiping community learn through the grant project year?

c. What lasting impact have you seen or do you hope to see from this project?

d. How did you hear about the Vital Worship Grants Program?

e. What advice would you have for those who are considering applying for a grant?

4. Discussion: questions from attendees:

5. More details about the Vital Worship Grants

6. Prayer for grant recipients past, present and future, and for the worshipping communities represented by all in the room.
