My two Sweethearts! —

Mama has just said good-bye to Papa, he is all dressed for the parade, I hope it will pass off without any accident. Papa looked well on horseback. The parade was good, and lasted $3\frac{1}{2}$ hours. Today convention opens. Mama has had her first glimpse of the Pacific, at Golden Gate Park. We saw century plants ⁱⁿ bud. The Palms as they grow old are not pretty. I am either cold or hot. Every morn, there is a heavy fog from the ocean. The wind is very cold Ladies wear their seal skin coats, all day long. I have received but one letter, from you. I hope you have not forgotten us. This is the morning of the 20. We were so busy yesterday, I could not finish my letter. Mrs. Karitz + I went through China Town yesterday after the parade. It is like being in another country. Wanna will tell you all about it when I get back. I enclose a pin for each of you, with the Lords Prayer on the back. Give my love to Kittie + Hattie. You boys must take good care of them. With much love Wanna + Pappa.

Don't neglect your Bibles, +
" " Prayer,

Be sure to save the papers
Papa sends home

Mama has lost her glasses.
If you boys were here I would have you skirmish around for them.
