Mama's Sweethearts:-

Yesterday we had so much to do, I did not get any time to write. We changed our quarters, we are in a private home to sleep, and get our meals at a cafe. That hotel was so crowded the men slept on cots in the halls and even in the basements. Mrs. Hanitz invited me to her room to watch the parade, as they pass the hotel. Mrs. H. was out in the hall a moment ago, a man came up to her and said where is room 49. She replied "I don't know" "well" he said "don't you work here?" she said "think of it I thought I was dressed up too." We are going to have a boat ride on the Miss. to St. Paul tomorrow, and are going to see The Minnehaha Falls today. I am writing this from the window, where the men are forming for the march). Yesterday was a very hot day two vets died from the effects of the heat; we had a thunder storm last night; but today it is clear. The town is beautifully decorated. We are well, and hope you are take care of yourself don't get overheated, this warm weather, and Mama's prayer is to our Heavenly Father to protect you from all temptation and harm.

Lots of love to you from

As we neared La Crosse on our trip up here, we were passed by a train going very fast - we learned a little later a passenger had gone crazy and stabbed six people and then shot himself. at the last report none were dead.

I remarked, that I hoped none of our crowd, would do such work, they remained sane, it ^{is} growing warmer we hoped it would be a cool day for the old vets.

Mama,
