Received Holland, Mich., July 21, 1871, from Rev. Dr. A. G. Van Rensselaer, through the hands of Jacob Lubin, One Hundred and Fifty Dollars, to balance all demands held by us against him for flour, provisions, &c., furnished for the support of the family of his son Albertus Van Rensselaer, by Dr. J. M. Van Schelven & Oryel, out of their Store, and for which I have always held him morally responsible.

J. Van Schelven,
